What You Missed Last Month

Our February meeting was exceptional. Many thanks to Karen Hildebrand for coordinating our speaker and Jane & Lori for the location. We had a yummy lunch at a spot that was new to us – Famous Dave’s BBQ.

Olivia Wight is the founder of Power with Purpose. As a Social & Emotional Intelligence coach who, as a survivor of poverty and familial dysfunction, is dedicated to empowering others to increase their personal emotional awareness, cultivate effective relationship management, and foster an environment of accountability, responsibility, and confidence in initiating positive change.

Olivia, an Ethics and Morals major, spoke about helping those I need, particularly females, to cope with life’s challenges in a constructive way. Financial security, adapting behavior and cognitive difficulties, surviving life’s stresses to better serve a productive life. She meets with clients in a non-office setting, usually at a coffee shop to help them feel more comfortable.

As one member stated, this was an wonderful speaker and “we need to keep track of her” and “help her with her work.”

Coffee & Chat Special Interest Group

This informal (fun) group will meet on Saturday, May 27 at 9:30 am.... on the patio at Spoons Bistro & Bakery, 3090 North 12th Street Grand Junction. The group’s only agenda is to chat about whatever topics come up, from the frivolous to the serious. Come when you can; bring a friend. Call Jane at 970-241-9684 with any questions.
