The Intensive Outpatient Program is a 12- to 16-week program offering 9 hours per week of group services for adult males. Services are available to adults from the community as well as those involved in the criminal justice system.

The Criminal Justice Services Department is an excellent entry point for individuals graduating from college or those interested in working in the substance abuse treatment field. Several of our counselors began as CJOs (Criminal Justice Officers) or case managers, gaining hours toward their Certified Addiction Technician credential or continuing their education toward a master's degree in counseling.

Thoughts from Branch President Jane Fitzgerald

What a wonderful Holiday luncheon we enjoyed on December 8 at the home of Lori Wood. Thank you Lori for hosting and for the delicious onion soup. And thanks to all who also brought yummy dishes....who knew we were all so talented.

I did not think to total the amounts you all donated to increase the endowment of our AAUW CMU Tech Scholarship, but I know it was over $1250. I have turned over the checks to a very happy Rick Adelman at the CMU Foundation office. We will have to wait until after the end of the month for a report on the matching amount.

At our Coffee & Chat Group meeting on December 20th we were provided with some startling statistics via The Center for Children's Fall newsletter. From January 1 through October 31, 2025 there were reported 189 cases of sexual abuse or assault, 48 related to physical abuse or neglect, 35 witness to violence, 13 child sexual abuse material (CSAM). Of the clients served 59 children were ages 0-6; 77 children were ages 7-12; 135 children were ages 13-17; 18 clients were 18-24; 18 clients were over age 24. This information resulted in a spirited discussion as some members have a sociology background and others work with youth.

The Center can be contacted at 970-245-3788 if you are interested in becoming a volunteer. The Center welcomes cash donations at P.O. Box 3978, Grand Junction, CO 81505. And the Center has a wish list for items which may be dropped off at their front door at 2350 G Road, Grand Junction (near Community Hospital)...Monday thru Friday from 8 to 5.
